Note: After filing, the CEO David Greenstein had to pay for certain ongoing operating expenses in order to retain business with some vendors.

These payments are reflected in operating/other expense above.

The above payments do not reflect payroll for David Greenstein, Marv Toland, Steven Greenstein and David Gowey, who were both employees and officers.

* in the case of checks, the pay date is the date the check cleared the bank

** There were no payments to officers or BOD in April 2007 and there were none in any month of 2008 or 2009.

Checks issued prior to 3/20/06 and allowed to clear the bank after filing

* These foreign office expense checks should have been rejected but were not due to confusion over the check numbering because the Korean office check numbers/check stock was not changed because it could not have been done before the office closed in April.

The foreign office separation checks, issued pre-petition, were allowed to clear post-petition due to the fact that they are employee related, and given Korea law, the manager in Korea could have been jailed had the payments not cleared.
